

N'goma is multi-arts expression with singing, drumming, dancing and story-telling. A key part of Wagogo life for centuries, N'goma is education, transmitting cultural identity, history and values.

BUILDING ON SUCCESS

These achievements are made possible by your donations to Chamwino Connect.

The work being done through Chamwino Arts Center and Chamwino Connect has grown into a community-led organization that is empowering and improving the lives of Tanzanians

The Chamwino Art Center has hired Fred Tchelewa Ndeki as Managing Director. Fred formerly worked with Jane Goodall. He will supervise and facilitate operations.

After a research practicum in Music, Documentation and Archiving at Chamwino Arts Center, an event was organized at Fountain Gate schools in Dodoma, where UDSM students performed songs composed during the field work. (SHOWN AT TOP)

The human connections fostered by the Cigogo festival has led to a book of Tanzanian songs and games: Harambee! by Kedmon Mapana and Minnesota music educator, Karen Howard.

The 13th Cigogo Tamasha dates are July 22-24, 2022. Forty festival volunteers and CAC staff are already at work on organizational details. The water system and washrooms essential to infrastructure for the Festival are under renovation or construction. The Festival Committee is checking out 44 new groups that have applied to participate. In May, the Committee will visit 40 groups that are former participants. Nine groups from outside the Dodoma Region are confirmed, so 93 groups have requested appearance in the Festival.
